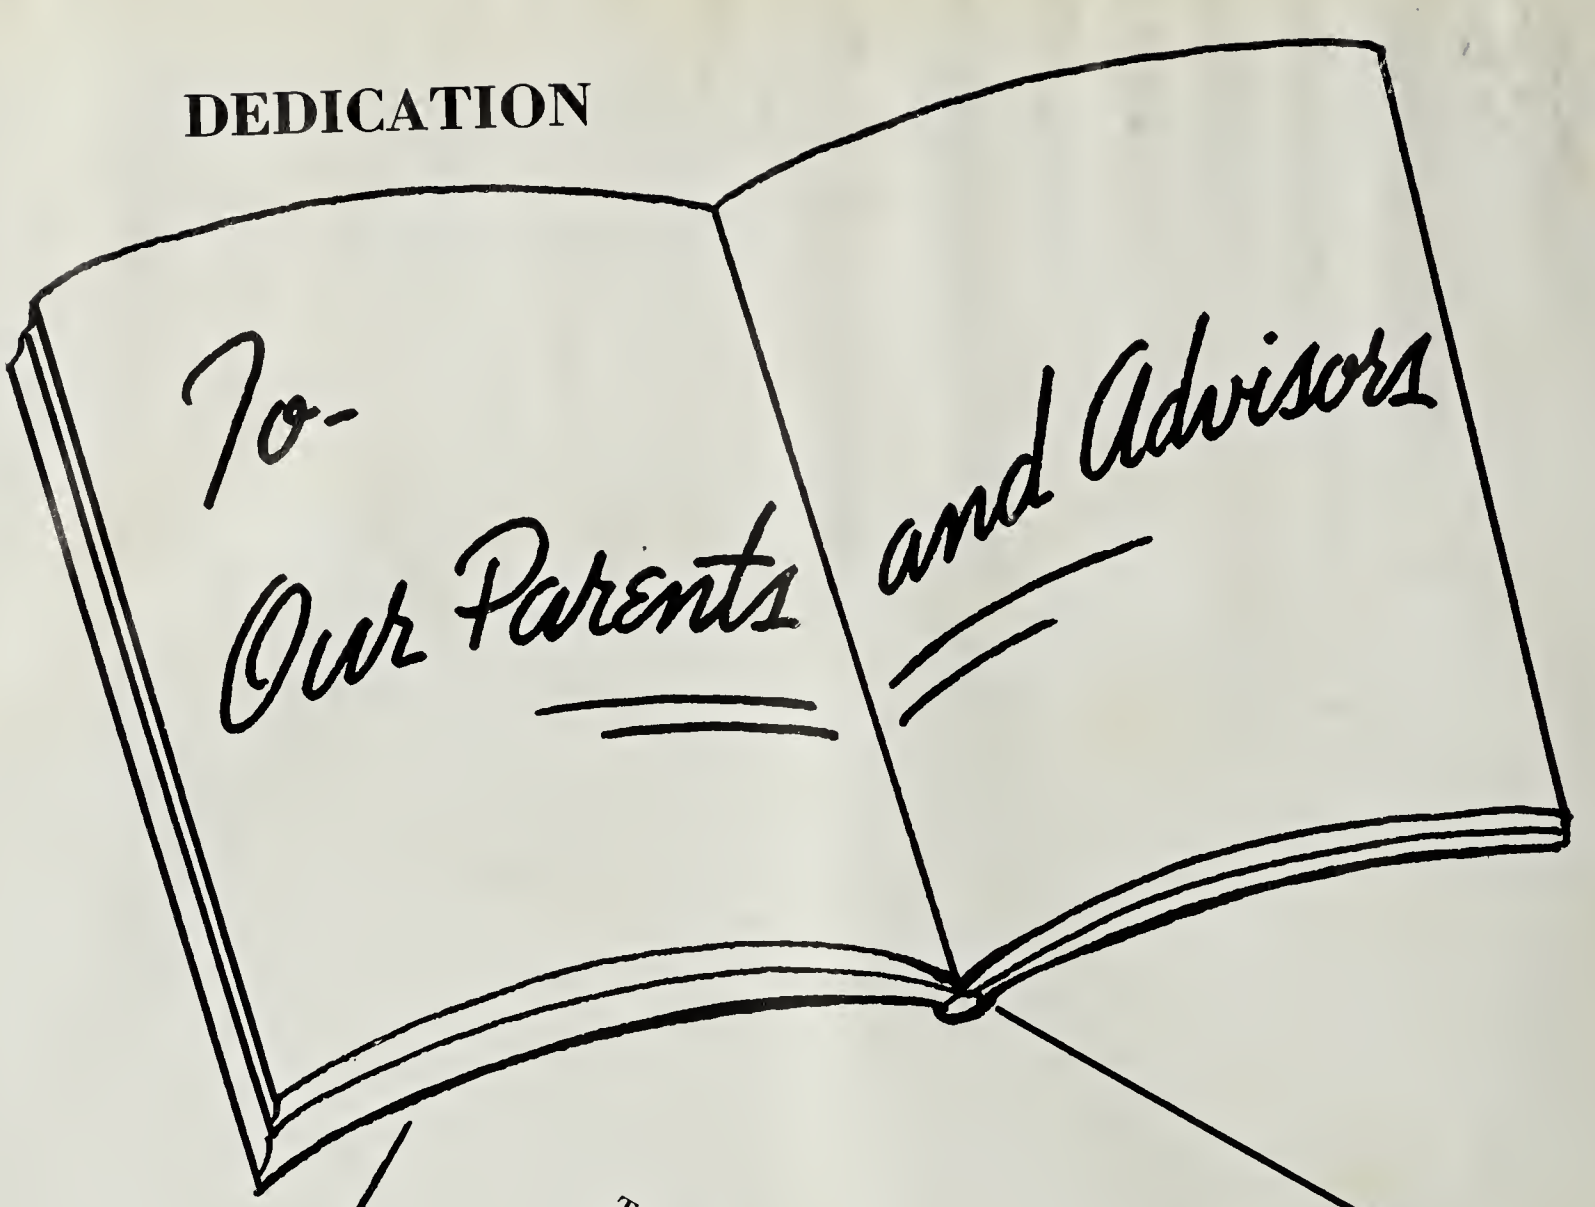
DEDICATION



To those who have made possible for us this voyage of four years, we, the class of 1957, dedicate this book.

Dear Parents and Advisors, we sincerely love thee for the many kind words and deeds you have expressed in our behalf.

May the love of God be with you as you go about your way guiding others as you have guided us.

Then let us leave you saying
words which often start,
All the tender feelings,
that come when hearts must part.

Frank L. Johnson

Foreword

Dear St. Paulites and Friends:

We have endeavored to present to you a picture of the functions and of the activities of our beloved Alma Mater for the school year 1956-57.

This eventful year has been one that we will never forget; however, when these memories become as vague as a whisper, we shall turn these pages, and with a wistful smile reminisce together.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

TO: THE MEMBERS OF THE 1957 GRADUATING CLASS

Dear Friends:

I am aware of the many problems you have encountered in producing this Yearbook and I commend you for the intelligent approach to the solution of those problems. In the years ahead this Yearbook will serve as a source of information and also a reminder of your experiences at your Alma Mater.

As I view the world situation today—the frustrations, conflicts, and tensions, both at home and abroad—I recognize more than ever the need for college graduates with a background of Christian education and understanding, with a desire to serve humanity, and with the courage to act. It is my hope that each one of you is such a person. Saint Paul's expects you to be such a person and has therefore tried to develop you to meet this challenge.

As you turn these pages in the years ahead and as you recall your college life, please do not forget Saint Paul's. You must always remember because Saint Paul's will never forget you.

With best wishes for your success, I am

Sincerely yours,

Earl H. McClenney

CLASS POEM

PARTING

When day is quickly ending
And night's long shadows come,
We often count our blessings
And many things left undone.

Our task is never ending,
Our victory so far,
But we will keep on striving
Until we find our star.

Before our day is over,
Before our task is done,
Comes the glad sounds of parting,
Farewell to everyone

O school, with all your splendor,
We'll miss you so, I fear;
Your hallowed grounds so tender
Will echo through the years.

May songs we sing so gayly
To our school on the hill
Stand for all we cherished:
Love, friendship and goodwill.

Then let us leave you saying
words which often start,
All the tender feelings,
that come when hearts must part.

—Frank L. Johnson

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

of the Class of 1957

We, the Senior Class of 1957, members of the college family of Saint Paul's Polytechnic Institute, being in possession of sound mind, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To our President, Dr. Earl H. McClenney we leave our sincere wishes for a long, happy, and successful administration.

To our Alma Mater, we bequeath our pledge to carry ever forward the torch of enlightenment and knowledge.

To our Faculty, we leave our sincere gratitude for understanding individual differences.

To the Juniors, we leave our honest efforts to acquire dignity and our ability to hold superior positions.

To the Sophomores, we leave our spirit of cooperation.

To the Freshmen, we leave this thought: "Lofty ideals, a spirit of cooperation, and arduous labor are essentials for building the type of leadership required by today's complex society."

Individual Bequests

Alice Ashley leaves her ability to sing to any deserving choir member.

Emma Hunter leaves her cosmetic kit to Fannie Midder.

Yvonne Malone leaves her attractiveness to Jessie Crews.

George McLaughlin leaves to Proctor Houston his ability to argue a point, whether right or wrong.

Augustus Harmon leaves his ability to get along with women to Teddy Silvey.

Barbara Robertson wills to Gloria Motley her ability to talk to the male sex without falling in love.

Johnson Harmon leaves his good grooming taste to Gatha Richardson.

Gladys Williams leaves her coolness to Zella Williams, to Lillie Walters, and to Howard Copeland.

Annie Brown leaves her ability to sew to Delores Graves.

Jerry Windley leaves his position on the football team to Thurrel Taylor.

Clarence Brodnax wills his ability to be president of every organization to anyone who has never held an office.

Shirley Oliver leaves her waistline to Mary Otho.

Juanita Burke leaves her singing ability to Eleanor Bolling.

Sylvia Pollard leaves her stature to Charlotte Baskerville.

Robert Pleasant leaves to Shelton Penn, his ability to maintain a high scholastic average; and, to the most deserving student on the campus, Robert leaves the responsibilities he has in extra-curricular activities.

Richard Gaffin leaves his electric tools and electrical skill to James Crumble.

Lilieth Griffin leaves her height to Geraldine Riddick.

Wilma Gross leaves her fingernails to Lucy Walton.

Earl Shelton wills his ability to croon like "Nat" to Herman Goffigan.

Wilbur Spencer leaves the job of ringing the school bell to Claude Miller.

Sylvester Mack leaves his ability to play the piano to Shirley Vaughan.

Alvin Sydnor leaves his seat in Mechanical Drawing to Leroy Sampson.

Willie Underwood leaves his busy ways and the president's seat in the choir to Leon Ragland.

Samuel Harris wills his title as "Big Eater," to Knoble Wiley.

Shirley Holcomb and Juanita Johnson leave their source boxes of information to Honorie Whittle and to Laura Johnston.

Della Suckins leaves some vitamin pills to Mildred Daise.

Arbelle Charity leaves her hair bob to Mary Thompson.

Constance Lambeth leaves her ability to take dictation to Maurita Powell.

Margaret Williams leaves her "all-around" wardrobe to Theresa Wilkins.

Henry Moss leaves to David Busch his ability to do carving in carpentry.

Sam Lenox leaves his Louisiana drawl to Alan Thomas so that Alan can come down to earth.

Glendola Poindexter wills her seat in the Dean of Women's Office to Lillian Morings.

Marilyn Williams leaves her dramatic ability to Falisha Corbin.

Hazel Brice leaves her business-like ways to Delores Solomon.

Margaret Brown leaves her grace in dancing to Yvonne Jeffries.

Wesley Scott leaves his quiet and reserved manners to Rodney Lewis.

John Wright leaves his job as chauffeur for Dean Harrison to Joshua Hutchins.

Nellie Mangrum leaves her reserved manner to any girl who can use it.

CLASS SONG

PARTING TIME

We hate to leave these hallowed grounds of dear old St. Paul's.
Our college days have passed so fast,
that parting time is near.
As we sing this our song to you,
Our hearts are loyal, firm, and true.
Thinking of four years we have toiled here,
Preparing to teach our youth.
Farewell, to all our teachers;
We know you've done your best.
You've shared with us your knowledge
to help meet future tests.
We thank our teachers and our parents,
Who have helped us along our toilsome way.
Farewell, the time has come to say goodbye.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

BASKETBALL

St. Paul's cagers opened their season with a thrilling 88-84 victory over the Shaw University Bears. The team showed fine teamwork in outscoring the hard fighting Bears.

The second game, however, marked the beginning of a season-long losing streak for the Tigers. West Virginia State College and Bluefield State College handed the Tigers setbacks in their next two encounters. Nor were the Tigers able to fare any better in their next fourteen games. Lady Luck seemed not to be riding with them. Many of the games, though, were hard-fought, closely-contested, thrill-packed contests.

The 1956 edition of the St. Paul's Football Tigers, stocked with an array of freshman talent, opened their campaign against Norfolk State on October 28, at Norfolk. The Tigers displayed great power in whitewashing the Statesmen 19-0. However, on the following weekend, the Tigers went down to a strong J. C. Smith University team in a hard fought 7-0 loss. The next two games saw the Tigers absorb two whitewashings at the hands of St. Augustine and Bluefield State.

It seemed that the Tigers just were not able to get started in their encounters with CIAA foes. Throughout the season, the team was unable to lift itself from the throes of a losing streak. The season ended with the Tigers owning a 1-8 record.

Despite the poor showing of the team, the performances of some of the players indicated that the Tigers may be a much improved team next year.
